

LETTON SCHOOL HONOR ROLL.

Miss Fay McWhorter, teacher of the Letton School, reports the following good averages attained by the pupils of the school on the November honor roll:

Sherman Carmichael 94, George C. Letton 93, Earle Martin 92, Emma Wagner 92, Mary Sharp 91, Edith Martin 91, Blanch Perkins 91, Leon Stuart 91, Edna Wagner 90, Walter D. Ruark 90.

THE YEAR'S SHORTEST DAY.

To-day, December 21, according to the calculations of the astronomical and other intellectual high-brows, is and will be the shortest day of the year. The hours will contain just sixty minutes each, as usual, but the day will be shorter, because the scientists have figured it so. To the newspaper workers the day will seem just as long as any other on the calendar.

DECEMBER EVERYSTUDENT

The December issue of The Every-student, the Paris High School monthly, is just off the press from THE NEWS job rooms, and is a worthy successor to its three predecessors in every way.

The table of contents includes a letter "Somewhere In France," written by a former P. H. S. student, Ensign Harold T. Harris, of the U. S. Navy, to his mother Mrs. Ernest Harris; "Recipe For Corn Bread," a Hooverized poem by Lane Lusk; Honor Rolls for October and November; "Thanksgiving," a delayed poem by Anne Talbot; Editorials; "Penny Lunches;" "Christmas Spirit," and "The Gift," the latter by Fovola Dundon; Personal; "Thrifty Stamps," by Charlie Kenney; a delightfully written story, "Molly Claudie," by Little Crowe; another, "A Christmas Pie," by John Dundon; Jokes by the jokestaff; "The Redpath Lyceum Bureau;" Queries Answered by Aunt Chollie and Cousin Elizabeth. The number also carries a large number of Christmas advertising matter for Paris merchants.

The editorial staff is composed of Robt. Lavin, Editor-in-Chief; Elizabeth Clark and Chas. Kenney, Beauty Editors; Rice and Rye, Business Managers; Louise Connell and Little Crowe, Literary Editors; Dorothy Tingle, Exchange Editor.

Everystudent is always bright and interesting, and is one of the best school publications in the State, from both a literary and typographical standpoint.

COMMUNITY CHRISTMAS TREE TO BE ERECTED.

Plans are being perfected by the Bourbon County Health & Welfare League, through its capable and efficient Visiting Nurse, Mrs. Harriet Minaker, and her associates, besides members of fraternal, church social organizations, for holding a "White Christmas" and "Community Christmas" tree in Paris, as has been done so successfully in years past.

The same plan, with slight variations, that proved so helpful for several years past, will be used. Presents for children of poor people, who cannot afford the expense themselves, will be provided through the generosity of the people of Paris and Bourbon county. Aside from this feature the singing of Christmas carols and a special musical program will be rendered under a capable director.

The exercises will take place on Christmas Eve, the time and place to be announced in the Paris papers. The pupils of the Paris Schools will have a prominent part in the exercises, and the best musical talent of the city will be enlisted in the movement.
